

FLYMF* Mad Libs For Modern Times—Eulogy

We've come here today in the memory of _____. (Male Name) was my _____. He was Male Name Relationship

a _____ man, a _____ man, and, above all, a _____ man.
Positive Adjective Positive Adjective Positive Adjective

(Male Name) lived a good life. He grew up in a loving family in _____, where in Location high school he loved to play the _____ and dream about becoming a _____. Those Instrument Cool Profession who know him know that his _____ kept him from achieving that dream, but it Physical Ailment didn't stop him from building a _____ and _____ career in _____.
Adjective Adjective Job No One Ever Dreams of Doing

But work wasn't the defining element of (Male Name's) life. That was reserved for family. Looking around this _____ this is evident. I see his _____ children and _____ Place of worship Number Number grandchildren here today, each of whom made him very _____. I see his wife of _____ Feeling Number years, _____ whom (Male Name) loved since the day he met her delivering _____ Female Name Plural Noun to her father's _____. I've heard stories of the vacations they used to take to Business
_____, the long nights spent making _____ and playing _____ together. I've Place Food Game heard stories of the sacrifices (Male Name) made, how he would go without _____ A Necessity for years at a time so his children could afford _____ and _____. For (Male Name), Crap Kids Don't Really Need family was everything.

I think that makes it easier to say goodbye, knowing how much he _____ and how much Past Tense Verb
he was _____ in this lifetime. (Male Name) led a good life, and may _____ bless him.
Past Tense Verb Deity
Amen.