Dear Golightly,

I am Barrister William Kojo, a solicitor at law. I am the personal attorney to late Mr. Pitt Golightly, who used to work with MOBILE Oil Servicing Company in Nigeria. Here in after shall be referred to as my client.

On the 21st of April 2000, my client, his wife and their only daughter were involved in a car accident along sagbama express road. All occupants of the vehicle unfortunately lost there lives. Since then I have made several enquiries to your embassy here to locate any of my clients extended relatives, this has also proved unsuccessful. After these several unsuccessful attempts, I decided to track his last name over the Internet, to locate any member of his family hence I contacted you.

I have contacted you to assist in repartrating the fund valued at US$10.5million left behind by my client before it gets confiscated or declared unserviceable by the AFRICAN DEVELOPMENT BANK OF NIGERIA (ADB), where this huge amount were deposited. The said BANK has issued me a notice to provide the next of kin or have the account confiscated within the next fourteen official working days.

For the fact that I have been unsuccessfull in locating the relatives for over 2 years now, I seek the consent to present you as the next of kin to the deceased, since you have the same last name with my client, so that the proceeds of this account can be paid to you. Therefore, on receipt of your positive response, we shall then discuss the sharing ratio and modalities for transfer.

I have all necessary information and legal rights needed to back you up for claim. All I require from you is your honest cooperation to enable us see this transaction through.

I guarantee that this will be executed under legitimate arrangement that will protect you from any breach of the law. Please get in touch with me through my email address.

Best regards,

Barrister William Kojo

Hello William:

I'm glad you wrote back. My wife was skeptical, but now she can see you are definitely right as rain.

What information do you require? I'm ready! I can have my attorney contact you if that will speed things up.

Let's close this deal! Though we've never met, I feel like you're family. Maybe once this is over, you can visit us in the United States.

Sincerely,

Glen

FROM: MR MORISON JOE
UNION TOGOLAIS BANK(UTB)
LOME TOGO

Dear Friend,

I am Mr.MORISON JOE from the auditing section of the UNION TOGOLAIS BANK LOME TOGO . With due respect and regards,I have decided to contact you on a business transaction that will be very beneficial to both of us at the end of the transaction.

During investigation and auditing in the bank,my department came across a very huge sum of money belonging to a deceased person,a foreigner who died on 31st October 1999 in a plane crash and the fund has been dormant in his account with the bank without any claim of the fund either from his family or relation before discovery to this development.

Although personally, I kept this information secret within myself to enable the whole plans and idea be profitable and successful during the time of execution.

The amount involved is(9m US$)Nine Million United States Dollars only. As it may interest you to know that,i got your your contact address through internet and i believe that you will be viable and capable to champion a business of such magnitude without any problem.

Meanwhile all the whole arrangement to put claim over this fund as the bona-fide next of kin to the deceased, get the required approval and transfer this money to a foreign account has been put in place and directives/needed information will be relayed to you as soon as you indicate your interest and willingness to assist and also benefit your self to this great business opportunity.

This Inheritance Could Be Yours! by Glen Golightly.
FL YMF August 2004, The "Terrorists Hate Our Freedom" Issue, Volume 1 Issue 6

In fact, I could have done this deal alone but because of my position in this country as a civil servant, we are not allowed to operate a foreign account and would eventually raise an eye brow on my side during the time of transfer because I work in this bank.

This is the actual reason why it requires a second party or fellow who will forward claims to the bank as the next of kin to the deceased foreign and also present a foreign account where he will need the money to be re-transferred into on his request as it may be, after due verification and clarification to designated bank account. I will not fail to inform you that this transaction is 100% risk free.

On smooth conclusion of this transaction, you will be entitled to 30% of the total sum as gratification, while 10% will be set aside to take care of the expenses that may arise during the time of the transfer such as telephone bills etc, while 60% will be for me and other investments in your country under your care.

Please, you have been advised to keep top secret as I am still in service and intend to retire from service after the conclusion of this deal with you. I will be monitoring the whole situation here in the bank until you confirm the money in your account and ask me to come down to your country for subsequent sharing of the fund according to percentages previously indicated and further investment, either in your country or in any other country you may advise to invest on.

All other necessary information will be sent to you when I hear from you.

Get back to me as soon as possible stating your wish to this transaction.

Yours Faithfully
Morison Joe

Dear William:

I have not heard from you in several weeks. Is everything OK? I'm anxious for us to conclude this deal. What do I need to do?

Should I open an office, use my attorney here or open a bank account? Do you need some sort of funding to see this through?

I've saved up some money from my part-time job at Starbucks. Do you have Starbucks where you're at? I like Harry Potter. I could send you a copy of the latest one.

In the meantime, I have been contacted by a Mister Morrison Joe. Do you know him? I think he's up to something.

Please, please write back.

Your brother,

Glen

Should I bring my own food?

yourself.

Sincerely,

Dear Barrister:

That certainly is an interesting name. Is it British?

By coincidence, my dear uncle Pitt Golightly also worked for Shell and expired in a tragic auto accident in your country.

A Mister Joe is helping me recover my inheritance from dear Uncle Pitt. Mark is a dear cousin of mine. How sad to lose to beloved relatives.

Perhaps you, I, and Mister Joe can work together to claim what is mine. I will certainly compensate both of you well. Mister William Kojo can also help.

I think Mister Joe is in Togo. Is that near you? Perhaps I can visit you after Mister Joe and I finish our business.

Is it safe to visit Nigeria? Should I bring a gun or a bodyguard?

This is almost too good to be true. You and Mister Joe aren't scamming me are you?

Sincerely,

Glen Golightly

My associates Mr. Joe, Mister Kojo and Mr. Barrister would be most interested in hearing your proposal. You will find them affable, yet tough negotiators.

Dear Papa:

First things first. In America we make what is called small talk before getting down to business.

We were discussing women's breasts. I like them huge, like Dolly Parton or porn star Candy Sample. What say you?

So, how's your family? My ole' lady (what we Americans call our wife) is going through menopause. It's not pleasant, especially for me, let me tell you.

Now, who am I supposed to contact for "our" diamonds?
Wink, wink!

Yours,

Diamond Glen Golightly
